What I am agreeing to

I allow Birthing Kit Foundation Australia (BKFA) to photograph, film or record me at the event identified above, and to use the identified images, video and voice recordings in communications about its work, Assembly Days, volunteering and fundraising.

This includes BKFA websites, social media, emails, reports, printed publications, presentations, promotional videos and paid fundraising advertisements. Permission covers this event and future BKFA promotion using this material, until consent is withdrawn. Online material may be viewed worldwide.

BKFA may crop, resize and edit material without misleadingly changing its meaning, and share it with service providers or media outlets for these purposes. Use is unpaid. This consent does not transfer copyright in any photo or recording I supply.

☐ I agree to the uses described above.

☐ Optional: BKFA may publish my name with the material (otherwise leave unticked).

Permissions for supplied material

The intended uses are BKFA communications about its work, Assembly Days, volunteering and fundraising, including websites, social media, emails, reports, print, presentations, promotional videos and paid fundraising advertisements. Material may be used for future BKFA promotion, until relevant permission is withdrawn, and may be viewed worldwide online.

- [ ] I own the copyright or have the copyright owner's authority to grant BKFA a non-exclusive, unpaid licence to reproduce, publish and communicate the listed material for these purposes, including reasonable cropping, resizing and editing that does not misrepresent it.
- [ ] I have confirmed that identifiable participants have given informed permission for the BKFA uses described above, including any publication of their names. I have excluded anyone who has not agreed.
- [ ] Where children are identifiable, I have confirmed appropriate parent/legal guardian permission and the child's agreement. If no children are pictured, leave this box unticked.
- [ ] I have checked that any school, club or other existing permissions specifically cover disclosure to BKFA and BKFA's intended uses; permission limited to our own channels has not been relied on.
- [ ] I have retained evidence of these permissions, can provide it to BKFA on request, and will promptly notify BKFA of any withdrawal or restriction.

Restrictions or exceptions and relevant filenames (write None if none)

Do not submit material for publication if any required permission is missing or uncertain. Discuss restrictions with BKFA before use. A declaration cannot replace missing participant or copyright permission.
